Terms of Service:

I am purchasing access to the Internet from the Toronto Free-Net (TFN). The service liability of TFN in this regard is limited to the functionality of the equipment between the customer's service interface point (the high-speed modem) and the broadband network provided at the central office switching device. I authorize the Toronto Free-Net to perform the necessary configurations on the subscriber line and network facilities.

I agree to use the service provided to me in an ethical and responsible manner, as outlined by TFN's Acceptable Use Guidelines and other online policies.

I understand that this summary of the agreement between the Toronto Free-Net and myself is only intended to be a convenience and does not supercede in any way the provisions of the Member Agreement to which I have agreed to be bound. The most current Member Agreement can be found at <http://www.torfree.net>.

The initial payment, which includes the cost of any purchased hardware, setup fee, first and last months' service fees, is required before the setup may proceed.
